They Stand Alone.

Standing out in bold relief, all alone, and as a conspicuous example of open, frank and honest dealing with the sick and afflicted, are Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription for weak, over-worked, debilitated, nervous, "run-down," pain-racked women, and Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, the famous remedy for weak stomach, indigestion, or dyspepsia, torpid liver, or biliousness, all catarrhal affections whether of the stomach, bowels, kidneys, bladder, nasal passages, throat, bronchia, or other mucous passages, also as an effective remedy for all diseases arising from thin, watery or impure blood, as scrofulous and skin affections.

Each bottle of the above medicines bears upon its wrapper a badge of honesty in the full list of ingredients composing it—printed in plain English. This frank and open publicity places these medicines in a class all by themselves, and is the best guaranty of their merits. They cannot be classed as patent nor secret medicines for they are neither —being of known composition.

Dr. Pierce feels that he can afford to take the afflicted into his full confidence and lay all the ingredients of his medicines freely before them because these ingredients are such as are endorsed and most strongly praised by scores of the most eminent medical writers as cures for the diseases for which these medicines are recommended. Therefore, the afflicted do not have to rely alone upon Dr. Pierce's recommendation as to the curative value of his medicines for certain easily recognized diseases.

A glance at the printed formula on each bottle will show that no alcohol and no harmful or habit-forming drugs enter into Dr. Pierce's medicines, they being wholly compounded of glyceric extracts of the roots of native, American forest plants. These are best and safest for the cure of most lingering, chronic diseases. Dr. R. V. Pierce can be consulted FREE, by addressing him at Buffalo, N. Y., and all communications are regarded as sacredly confidential.

It is as easy to be well as ill—and much more comfortable. Constipation is the cause of many forms of illness. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure constipation. They are tiny, sugar-coated granules. One little "Pellet" is a gentle laxative, two a mild cathartic. All dealers in medicines sell them.

Remarkable Virginia Well.

Mr. Samuel Sanford, who is investigating the underground waters of eastern Virginia for the hydrographic branch of the United States Geological Survey, reports a remarkable well located on the main road from Oak Grove to Montrose, just east of Potomac Mills, in Westmoreland county, at the residence of S. C. Barrack.

The well in outward respects differs not at all from the average dug well of that section, neither has it any peculiar mineral compounds in its water. It is, however, distinguished from other dug wells for miles around by a remarkable eccentricity. During a spell of dry weather of usual duration the well contains two feet of water, an amount sufficient to permit of a bucket filling quickly and easily. But if at such a time the wind blows strongly from the northwest and an accompanying cold wave makes a man's blood tingle, the water in the well falls so low that a bucket is filled with difficulty; in fact, the well almost goes dry. Similarly it has been noticed that when heavy clouds and winds from the east proclaim the approach of a gale from the coast of Florida or from off Cape Hatteras, the well contains more water than usual.

Wells which show marked changes in water level according to the direction of the wind have been reported from various sections of the country, but this is the first from eastern Virginia. The well is really a natural barometer, and its fluctuations of water level are due to variations in atmospheric pressure. A northwest blow and a cold wave are the accompaniments of an are of high barometer, of increased atmospheric pressure or, as meteorologists term it, an anticyclone. Similarly an easterly gale and rain era are the usual attendants of an area of low barometer or lessened atmospheric pressure. When the pressure of the air is greater than normal it forces the water in the well back into the interstices of the bed of sand from which it comes; lower pressure than common causes the water to escape more freely and rise above the usual level. Probably all wells have slight unnoticed fluctuations due to changes in the pressure of the air. Some local peculiarity of the water-bearing bed makes Mr. Barrack's well conspicuous among its neighbors.

Cowhided by a Woman.

A pretty brunette, fashionably gowned, rushed up to a well-dressed man at Broad way and Washington Place New York, Monday and muttering something in a low voice drew a rawhide whip from beneath the folds of her skirt and dealt the man several stinging blows. A crowd quickly formed around the two and watched the woman ply the whip.

Detective Fitzgerald was standing nearby, and, seeing the crowd gather, elbowed his way to the side of the woman and the man. When the detective placed his hand upon her shoulder she turned to him and dealt him two or three blows across the shoulders.

Fitzgerald told her he was a policeman. She then desisted, and Fitzgerald took the two around to the Mercer Street Police, Station, where they were charged with disorderly conduct. The woman said she was Mrs. Lillian Vangilder, 24 years old. The man gave his name as David Brazer. He said he was a commission merchant.

The two were taken to Jefferson Market Court, where Magistrate Baker set the case for this afternoon.

According to Mrs. Vangilder, she went to Europe with friends, and Brazer followed her. She declares he ran out of funds, and she pawned her jewelry to get him back to America.

They were friends for three years, but she says she learned that he was married, and refused to see him any more. Then, she alleges, he began writing letters to her friends, circulating disparaging stories about her. The immediate cause of the horsewhipping was a letter Brazer wrote her mother.

Charged With Stealing Jewelry.

After having given up $5,000 worth of jewelry to be married and awaiting six months, according to his allegation, William Dorton, a millionaire of Troy, N. Y., who admits he is 75 years old, appeared in the police court Monday to charge facinating Miss Mattie Ringer, 25 years old, with having stolen the jewelry. She was arrested, charged with larceny. Mr. Dorton said that he loaned her his dead wife's jewelry on the understanding that it would not belong to her until she married him, which she failed to do. Mr. Dorton, who is a very small man, with a long gray moustache, attracted much attentionin court by reason of his extremely fashionable cloths and his flashing rings. Miss Ringer was also a center of attraction, because she is a dashing brunette, with large brown eyes. She was dressed in all white and many diamonds glittered on her fingers and at her throat. Miss Ringer said that she looked upon the jewelry as a gift and that it was not on condition of marrying that she received it. Dorton said he was to marry her last Sunday. He waited at his apartment all day, he said, and when she did not come he started an investigation. He said that he discovered she had been receiving attentions from another man.

Athenian Fashions.

Fashions from ancient Athens 6,000 years old, was an attractive study for hundreds of dressmakers who gathered last night at the opening session of the convention of the Chicago Dressmakers Club at the Stratford Hotel, Chicago. Whether Helen of Troy and the belles of Athens ever strutted in straight fronts, bolero bodices and imported lingerie, or simply attired themselves in seamless tunics and sweet smiles, will be disclosed by Professor Albert Emerson, of the Chicago Art Institute, recognized as one of the best authorities in the country on ancient Grecian dress and customs. Along with Prof. Emerson's ancient fashions are displayed the inevitable Paris fashions. It will be no corset demonstration at this convention which will probably cause a decreased men "modiste" attendance. The reason is given that the demonstration of that feature last year brought out a crowd that the hall would not half accommodate.

Alexandria Gazette
SIC SEMPER TYRANNIS
AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER

WEDNESDAY EVENING, SEPT. 19, 1906.

THE DEMOCRATIC primary election in New York yesterday resulted in the triumph of Charles F. Murphy, and he will still retain control of the powerful Tammany Hall organization. The outcome of the election is also a victory for W. R. Hearst, who desires political power as an adjunct to his wealth. Mayor McClellan is now in the minority, to the chagrin of thousands of New York voters who had hoped that the Hearst epidemic was on the wane. This primary means much, not only to the democratic party in the Empire State, but to the organization as a national body, as it is more than a straw which shows from which quarter a dangerous gale, it is feared, is about to come. Mr. Hearst is a youthful patriarch in politics, and his ideas of political economy are justly regarded as unsafe, and liable to breed more than what is now looked upon as the more sane tenets of socialism. He has a large bank account which he inherited, and fired by an ambition he never would have satisfied by any inborn genius of his own, he is endeavoring to foist the worse type of plutocracy upon the nation. Mr. Hearst appeals to the horny-handed masses, who have worked to accumulate his ducats, to rally around his banner, while it should be apparent to every son of toil that he can have no sympathy with them in their struggles against poverty, he never having been called upon to stem its tide. Born with the traditional silver spoon in his mouth, he probably cut his teeth upon fifty-dollar gold pieces, and, clothed in purple and fine linen, he has been reared in luxury. He now poses as the representative of the working classes. The Tammany Hall organization is one of the most venerable in the nation, and while at times it has suffered temporary setbacks it has generally recovered itself and returned to its former position of power. It is now, however, about to plunge into the most dangerous storm center it has ever experienced, and many of the more conservative who have followed it through good and evil report dread the outcome of the next general election, as the action of the party yesterday will solidify the ranks of its enemies more than anything else that could have happened. Politics makes strange bedfellows, and the democrats will find that Mr. Hearst is a far greater load than John Kelly, John Morrissey, Richard Croker or any of the others heretofore prominent, who made political enemies during their careers. It is to be regretted by thousands of their fellow-democrats throughout the country that the renowned Tammany Hall organization is to be saddled with a man who has nothing to recommend him to consideration save a bank account which keeps him from being a cipher among men.

IT IS hardly likely that the premium of a campaign book offered by the chairman of the republican Congressional committee will induce many subscriptions to the slush fund to elect republican congressmen. The campaign book is always given away by the thousands and the cost of manufacture is but a few cents, after the first edition is printed. Those republican voters who want to be fooled again by "stand pat" promises certainly will not care what arguments are used to prove that the present trust-protecting tariff is what makes the farmers, the workingmen, and in theory everyone, have more more money than he knows what to do with. Those who feel that the cost of living is so abnormally high that they are obliged to economize to make both ends meet, have all the argument they need not to subscribe any of their hard earned dollars and to urge them to defeat the stand-pat policy, and they will therefore leave the trusts and monopolists to furnish the campaign fund, as usual to elect a Congress that will do nothing to disturb their tariff protection. To give people a premium as an inducement to continue to be plundered will hardly prove a vote getter.

THE STATISTICS of iron and steel exports for the year ending June 30, 1906, just published by the government, pretty effectually prove the existence of a world-wide pool on steel rails. The agreement was stated to be in existence and that no price was to be quoted for exports in the territory as divided up at less than the home price. It is quite evident that this continent, except Canada, has been conceded for American manufacturers, for elsewhere our exports have rapidly decreased, while on the continent they have increased. So it is quite likely that no quotations will be given by the steel trust for delivery in Europe, and as no steel rails were imported here, it is evident that there is no competition from any quarter. As the friends of the trust here, the republican leaders claim that rails are now sold cheaper here than abroad, what possible excuse is there for the continuance of the tariff duty on steel rails?

CHANCELLOR DAY, of Syracuse University, has ruled that students who can afford to buy tobacco and theater tickets cannot receive the benefits of free scholarships. A Daniel come to judgment!

PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT is prepared to use force to secure peace in Cuba if the Taft mission fails. Look out for another coup. The President is a great annexationist.

From Washington.

(Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.)

Washington, Sept. 19

Active preparations are being made by the War Department for the invasion of Cuba by a large army of regular troops. It was learned today that Brigadier Generals Thomas H. Barry and W. P. Duvall, who are now in Germany attending the army maneuvers there, have been ordered back to the United States by the first available steamer. Both of these officers are intended for duty with the army in Cuba. According to the best information available at the War Department, where the greatest reluctance is shown by officers in discussing the plans for an occupation of Cuba by an American army, the President has selected Brigadier General Funston to be commander-in-chief of the Cuban army of occupation. General Funston has been ordered from San Francisco to this city for consultation and will probably join the Taft party in Cuba.

That active armed intervention by the United States in Cuba will follow failure by the Taft emissaries to bring about peace there is now an acknowledged fact. It is rumored in official circles that the President has instructed Secretary Taft to tell the Cubans that unless they agree to a lasting peace by October 1st. they may expect then intervention by this country. The greatest secrecy is being maintained by the War Department regarding its plans of sending troops to Cuba.

The Navy Department has been advised of the arrival of the Des Moines with Secretary Taft and his party on board at Havana shortly after two o'clock this morning.

Additional dispatches have been received from Commander Colwell of the Denver at Havana saying that quiet prevails and that negotiations for peace are proceeding between the insurgents and the government and that both sides are preserving order pending the conferences with Secretary Taft.

The Navy Department this afternoon announced that the battleships Louisiana, Virginia, and New Jersey which are sailing down the coast will go direct to Havana, instead of putting in to Key West for orders as was originally intended. The Department also announces that the Dixie, now at Cienfuegos, will be replaced by either the Tacoma or the Cleveland, in order that she may resume her station in Santo Domingo, where trouble is threatened.

The Interstate Commerce Commission today called upon the railway of the country to join with it in the preparation of a rate schedule, "which can be understood by a person of ordinary intelligence.

Importers insist that the beef inspection law does not cover foreign meat products. Millions of dollars annually are involved. The Department of Justice has been asked for an opinion.

Brigadier General Samuel S. Mills, Chief of Artillery, will be placed upon the retired list of the army on his own application on September 30th. He will be succeeded by Col. Arthur Murray, who has already come to this city and assumed the duties of the office to which he is to be appointed. The retirement of General Mills is occasioned by ill health.

Funeral of General Trepoff.

St. Petersburg Sept. 19 —Under strong military guard the funeral of General Trepoff was held from the church at Peterhof this morning. Owing to fear by the authorities that the terrorists would attempt an outrage in connection with the funeral, the greatest precautions were taken to see that no opportunity for a demonstration of any kind was given.

Emperor Nicholas was not in attendance at the services. It is understood Premier Stolypin strongly advised the Czar not to attend the funeral.

The funeral lasted three hours and was attended by many prominent court officials who were present because they believed the emperor would be there.

A plot by terrorists to drop bombs on the imperial palace at Peterhof from balloons is said to have been discovered by the authorities, and in this connection it is stated that the discovery of the plot was the cause for the Czar's sudden decision to take a cruise on the imperial yacht Standart with his entire family.

Warsaw, Sept. 19.—Terrorists here today issued a proclamation giving notice that they have determined upon the murder of officers en masse.

In fulfillment of their threats, five terrorists shot and killed Col. Nicolaieff, an artillery officer, while he was walking in the streets. The murderers escaped.

Meat Regulations.

Secretary Wilson yesterday, as stated the Gazette of that day, promulgated the regulations, under the new meat inspection law, governing the transportation of meat in interstate and foreign commerce There are eight amendments to the regulations already in force, and these have to do with interstate transportation, inspected meats and proquets, exempted meats and products, meats offered for transportation by farmers and the restrictions upon common carriers in certain cases. A "meat food product" is held to be any article intended for human eating which is derived or prepared from any portion of the carcass of cattle, sheep, swine or goats, and which, when eaten, is capable of supplying nourishment or energy to the human body, or of repairing body waste. It is expressly declared, however, that a mixture of which meat is an ingredient, will not be considered a food product unless the meat contained therein is a definite and considerable portion of the said mixture.

The regulations are to become effective on and after October 1st next, but shall not apply to the continuous carriage of meat or food products which are in transit on October 1st next.

New York Stock Market.

New York, Sept. 19.—The stock market all through the first hour was feverish and unsettled, early advances being followed by sharp declines caused by uneasiness over the money situation. As a rule all the traders who had carried stocks over night sold as quickly as possible this morning. The general list, which made material gains in the early trading, declined 1 to 1½ points before the end of the first hour, but there were some exceptions to the prevailing advances.

A dispatch from Quadalajara to the El Paso, Texas, Herald states that the correspondent of the Jalisco Times at Mazatlan has wired that fifty-one persons were drowned in the recent floods in Santiago, Ixcuintla, and adjacent districts in the territory of Tepic. During the flood many persons took refuge in trees, remaining there until boats were sent to their rescue. It is reported that 500 persons are homeless. Widespread damage has resulted from the inundation of Sinaloa. Several river towns have been partly destroyed, thousands of cattle drowned, and crops in many sections ruined.

MARINE DISASTERS.

The Clyde steamship New York, from New York, arrived at Charleston, S. C., twenty-four hours over-due yesterday, having encountered a hurricane off Frying Pan Shoals and later having stopped to rescue five mariners who were clinging to wreckage in that vicinity. The shipwrecked men belonged to the schooner R. D. Bibber. The men were clinging to pieces of wreckage and nearly exhausted, having been in the water several hours.

On board the New York, Mate Goold told of the voyage of the schooner Bibber, Captain Sayres, beginning at Savannah September 9, when he vessel cleared with a cargo of yellow pine lumber for New York. The weather was bad from the 19th, and on the night of September 16 it was found that the schooner was leaking.

The storm was upon them, and the lashing of the deck load parted, and the lumber went adrift. The port main riging was carried away, and a little later the vessel turned turtle, casting the crew into the sea.

A sailor named Manuel had been lost before this, and there were remaining five men. The captain and a sailor named Anthony caught a spar, and Mate Goold and three others clung to a piece of the deck.

Four hours the New York searched for Capt. Sayres and the man, but they had disappeared. The rescue was made at the height of the storm, and showed skill and courage on the part of Capt. Staples.

A special from Conway, S. C., tells of the wreck Monday night of the bark Ethel, bound from Charleston to Elizabethport, N J., lumber laden. Capt. J. K. Abertson and his steward were lost and the two mates and six seaman saved. The Ethel left Charleston September 13 with a cargo of lumber, and, encountering the hurricane on the South Carolina coast, had made but little headway.

The survivors tell of a fearful struggle, and finally the beaching of the vessel in Singleton's Swash, near Little river. The bark was of 653 tons register, and belonged to the Hedrither lumber company concern, of Elizabethport. Mates Victor Henqueet and E. S. Peterson and six sailors succeeded in getting ashore and reached Conway last night.

COURT OF APPEALS.

In the Court of Appeals at Staunton yesterday, the following business was transacted:

John E. Roller vs. W. I. Paul, from Circuit Court of Rockingham; argued and submitted.

Transcrips of record in Commonwealth vs. Cosmopolitan Social Club, from Corporation Court, City of Norfolk; writ of error refused.

Commonwealth vs. J. P. Campbell; writ of error refused.

Black's administrator vs. Virginia Portland Cement Company, from Circuit Court of Augusta; argued in part and continued.

Next cases: Clem vs. Givens, executor; Blue Ridge Light and Power Company vs. Tutuiler and Herring.

Attorney-General Anderson is engaged in the hearings before the Corporation Commission in the railroad rate matter, but meanwhile must prepare to argue several Commonwealth cases before the Court of Appeals. Among these are several revenue cases, transferred from Staunton to Richmond. The case of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad vs. the town of Strasburg is another that will come up.

The court will probably hand down its opinion in the Churchman two-cent mileage appeal case during the next term in Richmond. Major Anderson has filed his last printed brief in this case.

The suit of the State of Virginia against the State of West Virginia for an accounting on the debt of the two States incurred before their division will be called at the October term of the United States Supreme Court. West Virginia will at that term file her answer to the bill of Virginia. That will probably be but a beginning, for the case will consume considerable time.

TRAIN PLUNGED INTO RIVER.

As was stated in the Gazette, Rock Island passenger train No. 12, known as the Texas, Kansas City and Chicago express, due to arrive in Kansas City 5:30 p. m. yesterday, went down with the bridge at the Cimarron river, a mile and a half south of Dover, O. T., about 6:30 o'clock yesterday morning. The entire train with the exception of the Pullman sleepers disappeared in the river. Men, women and children, still drowsy from their night's ride, were plunged to their death before they were aware of their danger. This train usually has a heavy patronage, and it is possible that fully two score persons were drowned. The known dead number eight 20 are missing and 20 are injured. The engine, tender, baggage and mail cars, smoking car and day coach of the train left the high bridge that spans the Cimarron river and plunged into the stream, which is flanked by treacherous quicksands. The locomotive disappeared almost immediately. The mail and baggage clerks escaped from their cars and swam to the shore. The accident was due to drift wood, which piled against the bridge and swerved it out of line.

The train was an hour late and was running at high speed. The engineer did not see the condition of the bridge until he was within a few yards of it. He shouted to his fireman and jumped He landed on the verge of the river and escaped unhurt. The fireman sustained severe injuries.

When the engine struck the bridge the structure collapsed, precipitating the engine, smoking car and day coach into the water. The Pullmans remained on the track. The current whirled the coach down stream and lodged it against a sand bank. The occupants were helped out through the doors and windows. The smoking car floated to a sandbar, and four men were seen to clamber through the windows and pull themselves on top of the car, calling loudly for help. Those on shore were unable to reach them on account of the high water, and while they were begging for assistance a mass of, driftwood swept them away. Three other men crawled through the rear door of the smoking car. They were rescued. The most authentic accounts place the number of passengers in the smoking car at between 25 and 30. With few exceptions they have not been accounted for. One man was fished out of the river at Cashion, 20 miles from the disaster. He was almost dead. Others have been reported floating down the river.

M'CLELLAN AND ODELL LOSERS.

The most important primary election ever held in the city of New York and marked by much violence resulted yesterday in the Odell combine being beaten on the republican side and victory for Charles F. Murphy and Tammany on the democratic side.

Congressman Herbert Parsons, chairman of the republican county committee, carried all before him. The Odell-Quigg forces were put to utter rout. It was the very worst defeat ever administered to Odell. The result means that Parsons will control by a large majority the executive committee and the county committee and that Governor Higgins will control the state committee and the republican State convention. Congressman Parsons will be reelected chairman of the county committee. The victory of Congressman Parsons is regarded as a triumph for the national administration as well as the state administration, as it was an open secret that President Roosevelt's sympathies were with the Congressman. Lemuel E. Quigg, Odell's right-hand man, was beaten in his own district. His candidate, T. P. Gilman, was snowed under by Harry W. Mack, the Parsons candidate.

On the democratic side, Charles F. Murphy, the Tammany Hall leader, won by a small margin The early returns indicated his defeat, and the result was in doubt until a late hour. Murphy's candidates suffered two notable defeats in the Nineteenth and Thirtieth districts. In the former, which is Fire Commissioner John H. O'Brien's home district, James Ahern, the McClellan candidate, won, and in the Thirtieth Percy Nagle won over J. F. Cowan after a memorable contest marked with several bloody riots. In one of the free-for all fights Nagle himself were terribly cut and beaten, and was also arrested. Murphy scored two signal successes in the election of his personal counsel, Peter A. Hendrick, in the Thirty-first district, and that of J. J. Walsh in the Twenty-first. Murphy's candidates for leadership were elected in 19 of the 35 districts.

Almost from the very hour the polls opened up to the closing at 9 o'clock last night riotous scenes were enacted in many of the election districts and many arrests were made.

New York, Sept. 19.—Yesterday's New York primaries were decisive in the republican party, but leave the political confusion in the local democratic party worse than ever. Lemuel Ely Quigg, the New York lieutenant of Benjamin B. Odell, admits that he was snowed under by Parsons, the Roosevelt administration leader. The exact figures indicate that Parsons will have 500 out of 723 votes in the county convention. Quigg lost his own district, the 15th.

In the Tammany primaries Mayor McClellan carried four and Charles F. Murphy seven of the eleven contested districts. The New York World estimates that in the executive committee Murphy will have 15 1-2 votes, the Sullivans 8; and Mayor McClellan 8 1-2. In addition Frank J. Goodwin, James J. Martin, and John V. Coggey, whose allegiance is doubtful, together will control 2 1-2 votes.

In the matter of democratic control most everything will depend upon the attitude of the Sullivans. McClellan partisans claim they will be independent and use their influence for Sulzer for Governor. Murphy, on the other hand, claims the Sullivans are with him, and that together they will control the delegation to Buffalo and enforce the unit rule.

Hearst leaders are today banking on the unit rule going through and on Murphy's swinging the Manhattan delegation to Hearst. It is stated on the other hand that there is a resolution of the recent state convention that the unit rule applies to assembly districts. If the assembly district rule holds, the Manhattan delegation will be divided.

In all the districts yesterday Tammany men who have come out for Hearst were active for the Murphy ticket.

This morning's New York World in a double column, double leaded editorial, makes a final appeal to New York State democrats to have nothing to do with Hearst. The title of the editorial is "Shall the Democratic Party Die?" What follows declares at length that Hearst is not a democrat, but a semi-socialist, who urges the masses to seize the government, not merely to maintain better order, not merely to administer more evenhanded justice but to make themselves shorter hours of work, more leisure, cheaper food, better houses, lower rents, and cheaper transportation. Hearst is compared to the carpetbagger politicians in the South after the war who promised every negro forty acres and a mule. If the democracy of New York is now to be delivered over to the independence league, and the advocates of semi socialism, what is to become of the democracy of the nation?"

Death of Mr. George G. Booth.

Mr. George Garduer Booth, who for about sixty years was a prominent citizen of Warrenton, died in Danville, Va., Sunday, September 2, 1906, in the eighty-sixth year of his age. He was born in Baltimore, Md., and in early manhood, moved to Warrenton and took a position in the carriage factory of Mr. Charles Bragg. In 1858 he started a manufactory of his own. Good habits, industry and thrift insured him worldly success. He early became a confessor of Christ and was one of the twelve constituent members of the Warrenton Baptist Church. He was the last survivor of that pious band. He was elected a deacon of that communion at its organization in 1849, and continuously held that office with consistent credit to the end. Mr. Booth was a good man, a true and loyal citizen; he was just in his views, correct in his dealings, conservative in temperament and altogether a creditable example to those with whom he was associated. He was clean of thought and of speech and none can recall that a breath of scandal ever attached to his name. He was a kind and indulgent father and a loving husband. Though modest in demeanor and retiring in disposition, he was firm in maintaining and enforcing his views when convinced of their justice. He was a member of the late Captain James V. Brooke's Artillery Company, and served faithfully the "Lost Cause" to the end. He held several offices in this community because there was need of him. He was never politician enough to seek such. There is no avoiding the feeling that the world is distinctly poorer when such lights are extinguished. J. A. J. —Fauquier democrat.

Mr. Booth leaves two daughters, Mrs. Richard B. Graham, of Danville, Virginia, and Mrs. A. Cornelius Wyckoff, of Alexandria.

The Cimarron River Accident.

Lawton, Okla., Sept. 19.—Reports from the scene of the Rock Island wreck near Dover, on the Cimarron river, do not bear out the early estimates as to the loss of life. The railway officials insist that only nine persons were riding in the smoking car when it made its plunge into the raging waters and that of "this number all have been accounted for excepting three. No bodies have been recovered, but, of course, it may take several days to find them, as the river's current is like a mill race. The inaccessibility of the place where the train went through the bridge makes the work of search for the missing persons quite difficult.

A Narrow Escape.

In these days of rush and hurry courtesy is often forgotten. In the mad, pell mell rush of our little life things are done to offend that we rather remained undone. Today's Telegraphic News

The Cuban Crisis.

Havana, Sept. 19.—The cruiser Des Moines, bearing Secretary Taft, Assistant Secretary of State Bacon and Minister Morgan, arrived at 2 o'clock this morning. In order to avoid the demonstration which they feared a daylight disembarkation would mean, the party landed immediately and proceeded in automobiles to the home of Minister Morgan at Mariano, where the commissioners will probably remain during their stay in the island.

Ranged just outside the gates of Havana are the armies of General Castillo, Col Asbert, General Guzman and General Faues commanding practically all the insurgents which have been engaged in Santa Clara and Havana provinces. Pino Guerra with his army from Pinar del Rio is expected to reach the suburbs of the capital today.

It is the plan of the insurgents to remain encamped about Havana all the time the peace negotiations are in session as a menace to Palma and an evidence for the consideration of the American secretaries that if given a chance they can make short work of Palma and his government.

The insurgents believe that by this show of force they can make it apparent to the arbitrators that they are the real power to deal with and that there can be no peace which will last except on terms acceptable to them without the United States keeping an army constantly in Cuba to preserve order.

Secretaries Taft and Bacon went aboard the cruiser Denver this morning, where they received the Cuban Secretary of State Senor O'Farrell, and charge d'Affaires Sleeper of the United States legation, and a committee from the island. Later the peace commissioners went ashore. A crowd of 300 persons had assembled on the pier, but created no demonstration upon the landing of President Roosevelt's representatives The Secretaries immediately started for the palace where they were received by President Palma. The Cuban cabinet also paid a formal visit to the Secretaries.

Havana, Sept. 19.—Immediate steps have been taken by Secretary Taft to bring about a settlement of Cuban differences on a basis which will guarantee a lasting peace in the island.

Havana, Sept. 19.—Six hundred marines form the United States cruiser Dixie and gunboat Marietta were hastily landed at Cienfuegos late this afternoon, according to a message just received here.

No details are given, but it is presumed that renewed activity on the part of the insurgent forces which surround the city led to an appeal from American merchants for further protection. Orestes Ferrera's forces virtually hold Cienfuegos in a state of siege.

Laying of Cornerstone.

Norfolk, Sept. 19 —The corner stones of the Virginia, Maryland and Travelers' Protective Association buildings for the Jamestown Exposition were laid today with imposing ceremonies. A large crowd was in attendance and speeches were made by Gov. Warfield, of Maryland; Gov. Swanson, of Virginia and others. In his address Gov. Swanson, among other things, said:

"I cannot give expression to my profound pleasure that the ceremonies attending the laying of the corner stone of the Virginia and Maryland buildings at this Exposition should be held jointly. I esteem it a high honor, a great privilege to be thus permitted to greet and welcome to this State the illustrious Governor of that great Commonwealth." The Governor gave a rapid history of the part Maryland has played since the settlement of the country and said that State early gave indication of that supremacy and genius in naval warfare which afterwards, through her illustrious sons, Stephen Decatur and Winfield Scott Schley wrote the brightest chapters in the naval achievements of this nation. Continuing the Governor said: "During the revolutionary war Maryland and Virginia stood shoulder to shoulder; both became battle-scarred with suffering, and crowned with revolutionary triumph."

The Governor then rapidly but in a most interesting manner traced the growth of Virginia as well as that of the country from the humble beginning at Jamestown, recounting the struggles of the colonists, the revolutionary war and other thrilling chapters in the history of the nation. In conclusion he said: "Let us remember with loving sentiment, enduring faith and tender memories, the lofty traditions and the high achievements of the Old Virginia. Let us live in the present, developing the resources, utilizing all of our opportunities for the progress of our State. Let us with brave hearts and strong arms look forward to the future and build a still greater Commonwealth."

Narrow Escape from Burning House.

New York, Sept. 19.—Twelve families had a narrow escape from death in an early morning fire which started in a tenement house at 1825 Amsterdam avenue. In addition to the flames and smoke, gas from melted gas pipes filled the house adding to the danger of the occupants. Only heroic work by the firemen saved the lives of several. Starting in the cellar, the flames ate their way to the stairway, and soon were blazing fiercely, rising toward the roof. Escape for all the occupants was cut off by stairs before flames were discovered. The six families occupying the front of the building were taken from the fire escape by firemen. In the rear more difficulty was found in getting out the occupants. When it was supposed everyone had been removed it was found that the members of the Shannon family were missing. Through the smoke and flames firemen fought their way to the flat. There they found the family of seven huddled near a window with wet handkerchiefs tied across their faces waiting for rescue. They were quickly carried to safety. Mrs Shannon, by her presence of mind, had saved her family by making them tie the damp handkerchiefs about their faces. The fire caused a loss of $100,000.

The Hong Kong Typhoon.

Manila, Sept. 19 —Hong Kong is a city of the dead today, according to cable dispatches received here today. Yesterday's dispatches failed utterly to convey an idea of the real destructiveness of the typhoon. It is said today that the loss of life will be between 500 and 1,000 souls. The exact total can never be known, owing to the fact that many unknown vessels are believed to have gone down outside the harbor. The property loss will amount to millions. Today organized parties are scouring the beaches and gathering up by the score bodies of victims being washed ashore. From 12 to 15 large vessels, including several war ships, and innumerable smaller craft were sunk or seriously damaged. No American is reported hurt.

Hong Kong, Sept. 19.—Dread of a native uprising and pillage has been added to the seriousness of the situation here, and there is grave concern in the American and European colony. Each hour adds to the magnitude of the disaster, the full force of which was not pictured in the first bulletin. The death list is growing hourly, and is already amounting to the thousands. Most of the victims are Chinese and thousands of native families are destitute as a result of the destruction of boats and floats on which they lived. Trouble is brewing among this class.

Thousands of them are clamoring for food and congregating about the police stations and government buildings demanding word of missing relatives. On one junk alone which went down in the harbor in sight of hundreds of watchers, who were powerless to aid her, carried down 130 Chinamen, not one of whom escaped. The private launch of the Bishop of Victoria was today found floating bottom side up in the harbor, and it is believed that the bishop, who had gone to visit some neighboring islands, was lost.

A Denial from Sullivan.

Chicago, Sept. 19.—Robert C. Sullivan, national committeeman of the democratic party for Illnois, is angry because of publications in a Chicago newspaper of an interview in which Sullivan is practically made to say that if he was to be read out of the party because he was connected with the Ogden Gas Company, then Senator Bailey ought to be treated similarly, because he was interested in the Standard Oil Company. The story went out and the Texas Senator came back in a hot reply, in which he said if Sullivan had said what he was reported as saying, then Mr. Bryan was right in declaring he was not fit to be a committeeman. When Mr. Sullivan read this statement from the Senator from Texas, he declared he had been misrepresented and misquoted, and he denied the statements attributed to him in the publication. "The first thing I will do," he said, "is to send a telegram to Senator Bailey, telling him the story is a lie out of whole cloth."

Washington, D. C., Sept. 19 —Senator Bailey, before leaving for Texas this evening, replied to Roger Sullivan's telegram, which denounced the Sullivan alleged interview reflecting on Bailey as follows: "I have received your telegram, and am pleased to know that you did not make the statement attributed to you." Commenting on the criticisms that have been made of his connection with the Waters-Pierce Oil Company, the Senator said. "No object of mine has ever attempted to influence my opinion on public questions and if they should ever attempt to do it they would have to get out of my presence very quick. If a rule is to be laid down in this country that no man is to serve in Congress and have business outside, either professional or otherwise, we will soon get a body of professional politicians."

Automobile Accidents.

New York Sept. 19.—The first of the to-be-expected serious accidents incidental to the elimination trials for the Vanderbilt cup race, to be run off Saturday, occurred this morning, and as a result George Robertson and his machinist, Arthur Warren, are in the hospital at Mineola, and their huge Apperson car is a twisted mass of junk wrapped about the base of a telegraph pole along the Long Island course. Robertson has a fractured collar bone, and Warren suffered the fracture of both arms. Neither man has recovered sufficiently to furnish an explanation of the accident and there were no other witnesses of the smash up. The scene, however, gave ample evidence of what had taken place Both men were hurled far by the shock and were unconscious when Lytle, in a Pope-Toledo, came bowling along and stopped to render first aid, while his mechanic dashed to Mineola for aid. It is believed both men will recover, but scarcely a piece of the huge car remained unbroken.

Rosh Hashana.

Rosh Hashana, the Hebrew New Year, begins at sunset this evening and will continue until sundown on Thursday. It is the first of a number of Jewish days of observance. The Day of Atonement, the most solemn day in the Hebrew year, comes ten days after Rosh Hashana, and five days later comes the Feast of the Tabernacles. The series of feasts and fasts concludes on Thursday, October 11. Rosh Hashana is reckoned by the new moon of the seventh month—Tishri—of the Jewish calendar, and is the beginning of the secular or civil year. The month of Abib, in which the Passover comes, is the first month of the religious year. It is a season of rejoicing and salutations are exchanged among the Hebrews in much the same way they are exchanged among Christians during the holiday season. The Orthodox Jews observe the feast for two days, but the Reformed Jews confine it to one day.

Services will be held in the Jewish synagogue on north Washington street at 7:30 o'clock tonight. Rabbi Louis Kopald, of the Hebrew College in Cincinnati, will conduct the services.

Another Robbery.

The fruit store of Mantis Bros., on King street, near Fairfax, was robbed for the third or fourth time last night and a package of money and two boxes of cigars were stolen. How the thieves entered the store is not known, but it is said they made their exit through the back door. The money was concealed beneath a number of bunches of bananas which were stored on the floor, and it looks like some one who knew about the hiding place committed the robbery. Chief Goods today ordered Officers Lyles and Jones to arrest Castle Howser on suspicion of committing the robbery. When searched $62 was found in his pockets. He acknowledged that he committed the robbery. Howser said William Chiakalos, previously arrested on suspicion of stealing $300 from Mantis Bros., was his accomplice, and Officers Lyles and Jones went to Washington and arrested Chiakalos.

Believes He Was Swindled.

A shoemaker of this city notified the police yesterday that he had every reason to believe he had recently been swindled out of $25 by three strange men. The latter entered his place of business and stated that they were associated with a large Boston shoe house, and solicited an order from the Alexandrian. The prices and terms offered by the men were so tempting that the local manufacturer agreed to give them an order. After notes had been made of the articles desired by the shoemaker, the strangers told the Alexandrian that it would be necessary for him to pay $25 down as an evidence of good faith. The money was handed over, since which time it has been impossible to locate the men. It was later discovered that when they left their boarding house one of the trio neglected to pay his bill.

No Extra Levy.

At the special elections held in the Arlington district of Alexandria County yesterday the extra levy of 10 cents on the $100 valuation of personal property in that district to assist in the construction of a new schoolhouse on or near Fort Myer Heights was defeated by a majority of 11 votes. Although this reduces the anticipated school funds by $1,500, it will not defeat the erection of a school building. The district school board and county superintendent of schools will meet on the ground at Fort Myer Heights tomorrow afternoon and endeavor to make a selection of a suitable site.

Daring Acts at Luna Park.

There was another large crowd at Luna Park last night. Many Alexandrians availed themselves of the opportunity to see Madame Zingarella repeat her thrilling performance on the high spiral tower as well as the thrilling act of Master Harry Record, who rode down the chute at lightning speed on a unicycle, leaped into the air and alighted in the lake at the foot of the chute. The act will be repeated every afternoon and evening during the week. The Greater Washington Band, under the direction of John Bovello, discourses inspiring music every night.

Anniversary.

The first train on the Washington, Alexandria and Mount Vernon Railway was run between this city and Mount Vernon September 20, 1892, fourteen years ago tomorrow. At that time the station was on the east side of Fairfax street, near King. The track extended down Fairfax street to Franklin running west on that street to Royal, where it again turned south. Two years later the present track on Royal street was laid when that on Fairfax street was abandoned. Trains between Alexandria and Washington commenced running June 6, 1896.

Thief Still at Large.

The thief who stole nearly $500 from the conductor's box of an electric train in this city recently is still at large. The railway officials have been unable to locate the man, but are confident that he will be arrested shortly, as it will be impossible for him to remain in hiding much longer. Pictures of the suspected man have been sent in every direction. Circulars offering a reward for his apprehension and conviction have also been circulated freely.

Southern Societies.

There was an enthusiastic gathering of the Southern societies of the city held in Lee Camp Hall last night to perfect arrangements for the outing at Luna Park on October first. The affair promises to be the largest one of the kind held at that popular resort this season, as the various committees are putting forth their best efforts to make this excursion a decided success.

Wilmington, Del., Sept. 19.—Justice moved swiftly today in the case of Charles Conley, colored, who on September 9 attempted a felonious assault on Mrs. Albert Frankish, and brutally assaulted her 12-year-old daughter Gussie. On Saturday he will also be whipped with 30 lashes. He also was fined $200. WEDNESDAY EVENING, SEPT. 19, 1906.

Suicide of a Minister's Son.

With the arrival at Detroit, Mich., yesterday of Attorney George F. Jackson, of Nashua, N. H., it became definitely known that a man known as Jack Coulan, who blew out his brains last Friday, was John Briggs Grover, formerly a prominent business and clubman, of Nashua, N. H., and a son of Rev. George W. Grover, a prominent New England minister. Grover went to Detroit last winter with a woman known as his wife and, on January 17, engaged offices in the Wetherbee building, and established a pattern business with his ostensible wife.

Attorney Jackson, who has been searching for Grover for several months, says that at the time of his disappearance from Nashua, last January, Grover told his wife that he was going to New York on business. He never returned. Rumors reached Jackson a short time ago that Grover was sick and dying in Detroit, and he did not know of the suicide until he arrived at Detroit yesterday.

Mrs. Coulan is alleged to have stated that until she found certain papers among Grover's effects after his death, she did not know that he was a married man, and that as soon as she found a number of letters from his wife, she had a telegram sent to her address notifying her of Grover's death.

Grover was thirty-six years old, and was prominent in social and business life at Nashua. About the time Grover left the city the wife of Jack Coulan, of Lowell, disappeared. It is alleged that she went west with Grover. Mrs. Grover still resides at Nashua.

Non-Union Beer at Reception.

The Central Labor Union was holding a business meeting Monday night at Typographical Temple, in Washington, which is also headquarters of the American Federation of Labor, prior to a reception for President Samuel Gompers, when a delegate from the Stonecutters' Union announced that he had by accident observed that the bottles containing beer for the evening's refreshment bore a nonunion label. "Away with it!" was the general demand from all sides. The chairman sought to explain, without much success, that the entertainment committee had given the contract for furnishing beer without thought that nonunion beer might be served. "The wagons have been dispatched for other beer—union beer," he announced. When Mr. Gompers arrived the approved liquid had arrived and was disposed of in the usual way.

Pocahontas Monument.

Pocahontas is to have a monument at last. Her descendants, including the Randolph, Fairfax and Cabel families of Virginia, in company with people in other parts of the country, have decided the little Indian maid who died so sadly in London in her youthful prime deserves recognition, and have organized to raise $10,000 to that end. The monument will be erected at or near Jamestown.

A TRULY IDEAL WIFE

HER HUSBAND'S BEST HELPER

Vigorous Health Is the Great Source of Power to Inspire and Encourage—All Women Should Seek It.

One of the most noted, successful and richest men of this century, in a recent article, has said, "Whatever I am and whatever success I have attained in this world I owe all to my wife. From the day I first knew her she has been an inspiration, and the greatest helpmate of my life."

Mrs. Bessie Ainsley

To be such a successful wife, to retain the love and admiration of her husband, to inspire him to make the most of himself, should be a woman's constant study.

If a woman finds that her energies are flagging, that she gets easily tired, dark shadows appear under her eyes, she has backache, headaches, bearing-down pains, nervousness, irregularities or the blues, she should start at once to build up her system by a tonic with specific powers, such as Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Following we publish by request a letter from a young wife:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:

"Ever since my child was born I have suffered, as I hope few women ever have, with inflammation, female weakness, bearing-down pains, backache and wretched headaches. It affected my stomach so I could not enjoy my meals, and half my time was spent in bed.

"Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound made me a well woman, and I feel so grateful that I am glad to write and tell you of my marvelous recovery. It brought me health, new life and vitality."—Mrs. Bessie Ainsley, 611 South 10th Street, Tacoma, Wash.

What Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound did for Mrs. Ainsley it will do for every sick and ailing woman.

If you have symptoms you don't understand write to Mrs. Pinkham, daughter-in-law of Lydia E. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass. Her advice is free and always helpful.

FINANCIAL

To lay aside a few dollars of your earnings every week and deposit them in our Savings Department, where they will earn interest, and on which you can draw in time of need. Money at home is not safe and when it is not earning interest you are losing money. You can open an account in our Savings Department with ONE DOLLAR and up, on which we pay 3 PER CENT interest and compound same into the principal twice a year. You can readily see under these conditions how quickly a small deposit will amount to a considerable sum. In naming executors for your estate you should consider the many advantages of securing the services of a strong and reliable trust company such as this—we act as Executor, Administrator, Trustee and in all other fiduciary capacities. When in need of a bond you should call on us—remember a man is under obligation to his family to not sign bonds. Corporate surety is what you want when in need of a bond—we execute Fidelity, Contract, Official and Judicial Bonds. We solicit the accounts of Banks, Corporations, Firms and Individuals. Loan money at market rate of interest. Consult with us—our advice may be worth something to you.
